The next day, Maya spotted the designer stores, and Jalen already knew exactly what that meant. A little teasing, a little shopping, and somehow Maya left with a brand-new pink bag while Jalen insisted he was only supposed to be looking.

5.
Something Unexpected
Their original plans get interrupted—rain, a missed reservation, or getting slightly lost. Instead of ruining the day, it becomes one of their favorite moments because they find something fun they never planned."
Of course it starts raining!
Come here, I got you.
This wasn't the plan, but this is actually perfect.
Right? Sometimes the best moments are the unplanned ones.

Just Us
They find a quiet spot away from the crowds. Jalen tells Maya that his favorite part of the entire trip isn't the city, food, or shopping— it's getting to experience everything with her.
This is perfect... Just us.

7. One More Night

On their final night, they walk through the lights again, grab a late-night snack, take pictures, and talk about where they should travel next.
